

Interfaith Community Counselling Centre

Board of Directors

Interfaith Community Counselling Centre is a registered non-profit organization that is located in New Hamburg, Ontario. For over 25 years the organization has been meeting the needs of individuals, couples and families through professional counseling services. As an organization we ensure that counseling services are available to all people regardless of income levels.

We are looking for volunteers to join the Board and provide leadership, direction and governance to the organization. As an individual you desire to make a difference in your community and by volunteering your time you know you are helping to ensure that in the long term Interfaith will continue to provide support to meet all people's needs.

As a board member you will participate in overseeing the affairs of the organization and the ongoing development of strategic business plans in accordance with applicable legislation and policies. While gifts and talents in Management, Administration, Marketing, Finance, Human Resources, Legal or Information Management will be beneficial, we encourage anyone who has an interest in being part of our team to contact us.

Directors attend monthly Board meetings, are appointed for an initial two year term and remain eligible to serve a second and third term.

To inquire more about this opportunity please contact the organization by email at board@interfaithcounselling.ca or phoning Mike at 519-634-5929. Information about the organization can be found on our website at www.interfaithcounselling.ca.

Mission Statement

Interfaith strengthens the fabric of our community by equipping individuals, couples, and families to realize emotional wellness and triumph over life's challenges.
